The California State Board of Horticultural Commissioners and the State Board of Horticulture were established in 1883. In 1903 the State Commission of Horticulture replaced the State Board of Horticulture. In 1919 the State Board of Horticultural Commissioners, the State Commission of Horticulture, the Board of State Viticultural Commissioners, the State Dairy Bureau, the State Veterinarian, the Stallion Registration Board (est. 1911), and the Cattle Protection Board (est. 1917) were abolished and replaced by the newly established Dept. of Agriculture. In 1972 the name was changed to Dept. of Food and Agriculture.

California Bible College.
Yolo Seminary was founded circa 1861. In 1861 its name was changed to Hesperian College, which in 1896 merged with Pierce Christian College (established in 1874) moving to Berkeley, Calif. and then to San Francisco to become Berkeley Bible Seminary. In 1920 the seminary moved to Los Angeles and its name was changed to California School of Christianity. In 1921 its name was changed to California Christian College, and soon after it merged with California Bible College, keeping the name California Christian College. In 1934 the college changed its name to Chapman College and in 1954 moved to Orange, Calif.

California Christian College, Los Angeles.
Yolo Seminary was founded circa 1861. In 1861 its name was changed to Hesperian College, which in 1896 merged with Pierce Christian College (established in 1874) moving to Berkeley, Calif. and then to San Francisco to become Berkeley Bible Seminary. In 1920 the seminary moved to Los Angeles and its name was changed to California School of Christianity. In 1921 its name was changed to California Christian College, and soon after it merged with California Bible College, keeping the name California Christian College. In 1934 the college changed its name to Chapman College and in 1954 moved to Orange, Calif.

California School of Christianity.
Yolo Seminary was founded circa 1861. In 1861 its name was changed to Hesperian College, which in 1896 merged with Pierce Christian College (established in 1874) moving to Berkeley, Calif. and then to San Francisco to become Berkeley Bible Seminary. In 1920 the seminary moved to Los Angeles and its name was changed to California School of Christianity. In 1921 its name was changed to California Christian College, and soon after it merged with California Bible College, keeping the name California Christian College. In 1934 the college changed its name to Chapman College and in 1954 moved to Orange, Calif.
